SOUND JOINS DUTCH JUKEBOX GALLERY

Sound Leisure is honoured to have signed a landmark agreement with the world's premier distributor and restorer of classic and antique jukeboxes.

Jukebox Gallery BV is based in the Netherlands and is a specialist agent for all types of modern and latter-day jukeboxes, with a global reputation. The company's decision to stock the Sound Leisure's hand-built range of classic jukeboxes is a huge compliment.

"This is a wonderful opportunity for Sound Leisure to introduce its range of Nostalgia boxes to more European customers. The only way for us to enter new markets with this type of specialist product is with a team of dedicated, professional partners. After visiting Jukebox Gallery's emporium in Holland, I believe we would have to go a long way to find anyone with such an amazing set-up.

"We were frankly overwhelmed at the company's expertise and professionalism and feel they have exactly the same ethos as us regarding customer service and after-sales. Anyone who ever has the chance to visit their showroom and museum that houses what must be the world's finest collection of antique jukeboxes and amusement machines should take the opportunity, it is an awe-inspiring experience - we were all like kids in a sweet shop," he added.

Alan, Chris and Michael Black visited Jukebox Gallery in Holland with Colin Vernon who runs the Classic side of the business to finalise the deal and also have a guided tour of their facility. Pictured is Alan Black with Willem Weijburg who is the owner of Jukebox Gallery.
